From Northern Virginia. The real news from the army of Gen. Lee oss not confirm the almost insumerable reparts which were in circulation on Saturday. A pretty severe engagement was fought at Bristow station, on the Ocaugo and Alexandria ailroad, on Wednerday afternoon, between two rigades of Gen. Hill's corps-Cook's and Kirkland's-and a heavy force of the enemy. The enemy were pasted in a railrend sot, and is advancing leward them our men were exposed to a galling fire. Our loss was quite severe-setimeted by some to be not less than one thousand in killed, wounded, and missing. In addition to this we suffered a loss of seven pieces of articlery. Generals Cook, Pency and Kirkland are reported wounded. Many of our wounded fell into the hands of the enemy; but that night they fell back, and, our hadly wounded were recovered, beside a number of the memy's arricusty wounded. The next morning a portion of Gen. Ewell's sorpe had a fight with the encury, in which we captured about five hundred prisoners. An officer, who was wounded in the fight of Wednesday, and who came down on the Contral train last cirkt, informs us that there were Private W. T.
